

“Rights(Freedom) & Power”

21. The meaning of the term right here is freedom i.e. every individual soul in human incarnation has a complete right of freedom in the most realistic and practical manner. So she has the complete right of freedom to earn knowledge - based power/strength, at any given time, in a “continuous” manner - of any particular or distinct constituent of society. The interpretation of the term freedom in society to do anything - anywhere - anytime implicates only the cultivation of the particular phrase rape only. Therefore only dignified, limited and practical thinking (मर्यादित व्यवहारिक सोच) is the only sole beneficial freedom for any particular soul. That is what the effect of each and every particular minutest of practical thinking of soul is on the entire actuality (सत्ता) i.e. overall living and inert of the creation featuring this world ...? Only and only by this, the consequence of the great right of freedom of the soul is decided in form of either “fine or compensation” and is certainly deposited in the personal account of the particular soul in a continuous and practical manner. And due to this only the soul particularly is necessitated to face either happiness or sorrow statutory. Consistently earning more and more compensation particularly grants prosperity to the particular phrase “power/strength”. In a similar manner the minutest of the minute of the most practical resolution/volition of this particularly continuously earned prosperity and power – when and what sort of and how much and for how long it causes and provides the most practical and particular effects and the most direct experiences to throughout the rest of creation – to each particular particle of this entire creation and actualization – good or bad – favorable or beneficial – path of enlightenment or path of destruction – only and only with the “usage/experiment” of this the soul’s particular official account will be funded particularly in form of either fine or compensation only. Therefore the most particular care must be adopted even towards the minutest spending. In creation, even though you can use your power but if the person in front of you does not accept it due to either of his personal desire-self-interest or due to his selfish motive because of his internal mind (मन) in form of either of empathy or lust, then most definitely you will have to be penalized particularly in a most certain and legal manner – because this action will result in most personal interference in the official right of freedom of the other soul ...! That is the person in front of you should also be completely enlightened towards his “particular fundamental goal” – most particularly imperative towards it at any given particular time and in a consistent manner – only and only then you will most certainly benefit from the spending of this most particularly rare power/strength ...!

22. Meat – Alcohol – Gambling – Lie and Jogging, without practically working on these five phrases in a consistent manner you advance on your most critical “particular fundamental goal”. “Meat” implies the fact of nurturing of an individual and society primarily and particularly through pure vegetative food earned via pious and righteous ways only. The person who peeps onto other people’s “plate particularly”, how can he hope to have himself addressed as pure vegetarian or pious ...? Therefore he will most certainly prove to be a “cowardice” and most certainly be devoid of self-respect and dignity and the person who has no “self-respect and dignity^{??} in his human incarnation – know this in a most assured manner that the most rare and precious heritage of human incarnation, particularly in form of “summum bonum /ultimate reality (परमार्थ)”^{??} is not meant for that person at any given time and in a most practical and authentic manner – most certainly grasp this fact, particularly you clever, spiritual and great “saints/holy persons”^{??} etc. etc....! Only under very special and particular time-circumstances consumption of meat is considered – only and only for the particular stabilization of the basic necessary needs of soul in human incarnation, which have been hampered due to particular certain delicate situations (life threatening)..!

“Alcohol”^{??} implies the fact that every “individual”^{??} should keep away from “each and every”^{??} particular “addiction”^{??} – his important and precious human body – whose particular “consumption and contact”^{??} causes deterioration in the body and allows the individual to wander off from his most particular fundamental goal for whose attainment while alive, the soul has been particularly awarded with this precious and essential human form. Only taking physiological precautions will not work – but putting “restrain”^{??} on “psychologically/mentallyperverse tendencies”^{??} by using particularly “present-day”^{??} statutory measures etc. is also equally necessary – as keeping the body healthy by avoiding malnutrition and a continuous exercise of particular pious measures for the stability of mind (मन) and body ...! Every now and then going on excursions-shopping, changing various commodities-items again and again etc. etc., taking-increasing loans-debts regularly over your own capability for the sake of more reputation-respect-show off and becoming a “mental patient” while spreading anarchy in the society and proving your fellow related companion souls along with yourself to be social criminals and playing an instrumental role in making and becoming a participant in hell particularly ...!

“Gambling” implies the fact of careful and cautious spending of rare and important capital in form of “life”, in a manner that particular and important duties of the man get completed and his important “distinct journey” towards his fundamental goal keeps going in consistent manner without any interruption and so that while being alive he can practically experience his goal, in form of his “particular fundamental base” explicitly before the last breath as in last penny is expended, only in an “awakened state” particularly – achievement of this particular fundamental goal is most distinctly success – “of winning” – this gamble in form of human incarnation particularly – at the “expense” of life for the purpose of laying bet particularly ...! Living a life of mere subsistence i.e. pious, virtuous and sincere fulfillment of all of your important and righteous responsibilities and duties is only the reasonable and necessary expenditure of your precious human birth particularly – while consistently keeping a pious awareness particularly towards your specific target only ...!

“Lie” implies the fact that there is a difference between the inside and outside nature of mind (मन) i.e. concealing and putting a cover on the actuality and something which is abstract, constantly trying to prove it artificially by manipulating-experimenting with all your good-bad resources fairly-illegitimately enforcing it in the society ...! Whenever a particular soul with her distinct justified-illegitimate resources particularly tries to trespass and interfere in other soul’s particular, important and rare right, then it is particularly exploitation and rape of the other distinct soul legally ...! Then person who eats meat of birds-animals is called carnivorous and the person who drinks alcohol is called drunkard – but such great “pilgrims in form of rapists” will always be proved most certainly as “cannibals” in the society legally (विधि) and authentically “by the sight of god” at any given time – because they do not eat the meat of bird-animals but of the human beings and instead of drinking liquor and alcohol, they drink a “rare wine” made from the man’s fresh-fresh-hot-hot scarlet red blood particularly – and that too with the company of all of their dear-dear relatives and acquaintances and friends and family members – in “ten star hotels” – particularly in utensils decorated with gold – on the dining tables decorated by slaves ...! And such great-great "holy pilgrims" are known is society as great "distinct religious discourses" - maharaja-patshah-guru-baba-sons of god-prophets etc. etc. great - various particular "god manufacturers...!" The god is particularly either blind in one eye or his doctor is distinctly unable to find his disorder ...! Maybe god is suffering from black cataract, that is why some particular "clever gurumukh (satsangi) { followers /worshippers / students etc. etc. ordained by religious teachers / saints / holy persons etc. etc. }" has written the term "asshole" distinctly on god's forehead and the god himself is not aware of this - what particular miracles are happening in the god's "particular important thinking" and that too in a most practical manner ...! Exploiting your resources only for the satisfaction of your personal self-esteem - show-off - respect and despicable and sordid desires/lusts.Remaining completely conscious and vigilant towards your particular fundamental goal and proper and justified utilization of your particular legitimate and available resources in the society in a continuous manner is the only way of carefully avoiding the lies at any given time in a legal and authentic manner ...! Even the subtlest of your each and every practical lie will steer you away from your particular fundamental goal but will bring you closer to gruesome and excruciating "distinctive hells" in a constant manner and moreover will be compelled to dive you into them again and again and will be bound to torture-torment you, so that you can have a most distinct personal experience in a constant and assured manner – know this clearly.

“Jogging” implies the health and well-being of human body i.e. particularly maintaining a complete conscious towards your particular fundamental goal in a consistent manner, till the last of your life force is expended. That is the soul has been granted this particular tool in form of a rare and important human body, it is an important tool only for the achievement of your particular fundamental goal – fulfillment of tastes particularly for the senses – and for the sake of your desires/lusts, constantly nurturing this body with poison and ultimately making it pitiful and decayed and slowly losing it in a constant manner and eventually straying away from your particular fundamental goal, where’s the wisdom in that ...? When again will you get this rare and important chance – nobody has the answer to this – who is able to take out this particular soul trapped in the unfathomable ocean of these infinite awful-disgusting sordid species, when she herself does not want to get out of this abysmal and infinite ocean ...! The proof is quite apparent, just look inside yourself, hey – particular clever soul ...! Have you ever found any spare time from fulfilling your tastes-desires-lust-wishes, so that you can think about why you are here and what is your most important particular task in form of your particular fundamental goal ...?

Viz. only remaining constantly and completely aware particularly towards your physical health-nutrition and work functionality, nourishes the particular phrase jogging in the most practical manner and for the sake of your personal and important benefit particularly so that you can experience your particular fundamental goal every second in a most direct manner. Cleanliness of the body especially the stomach (digestive system) remains fresh and clean and always eating clean, wholesome and in a regular manner, especially in reasonable and certain “necessary intervals” only and according to the energy requirements of your job and capability only is reasonable and will prove to be beneficial to you.

Staying away from the authenticity of these particular phrases proves that the soul in her own cleverness is engaged consistently in doing one particular task in a certain manner only i.e. she is continuously devoted in cutting the same particular branch on which she is sitting – oblivious to the fact that below there is a horrible river of fire only, which is very much eager to swallow her ...! And look at the extent of shrewdness, all it demands from all the particular free means and measures, only by his particular tongue that he only wants paradise – but by his each and every thought and behavior it proves one and only thing that there is no better rapist than me – there have been no one nor anyone will match me in the upcoming future ...? Then how can his sorrows and sufferings end ...? Those who have not even begun yet – how can the result of your cleverness and shrewd conduct become comfort-luxury-resources ...? Surely there is someone else who is “particularly clever”, whom you cannot seem to understand in spite of you knowing her ...! Just wait for the closing of your eyes and you will be particularly made to remember in a most definite and consistent manner – your most particular subtleties of your distinct great-great rapes ... ! And then suffering again and again you will damn yourself wishing that maybe you had awakened when you still had your life left and became vigilant , alert and mindful towards the completion of your particular most important home work of human life ... ! But what can be done now “कूक पुकार को न सुणे अत्ये पकड़ हो ढोहया” This is the most definite result of all of your particular cleverness – “बीजे बिख मगे अमृत”, so then how is the attainment of any comfort – luxury – resources possible ...?

इस पउड़ी ते जो नर चूके-आई जाई दुःख पाईदा।।”
